Weddings

Wade Strong.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Hill on the Horn Lake road was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday morning when their daughter, Miss Charles Frederick Strong, became a bride of the Rev. Harry B. Wade, of Senatobia, Miss.

Floral centerpieces, white and blue tulle bows made a pretty setting for the ceremony, which took place at 11 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Wade officiating, using the ring ceremony.

Miss Margaret Williams presided at the piano, rendering the bridal chorus, "Lobengrin" as the nuptial song.

The bride wore a stylish suit of blue tulle with hat and accessories in harmony and a corsage bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

The maid of honor, Miss Laura Malone, was gowned in golden brown tulle with a corsage bouquet of Russell roses and valley lilies.

The Rev. Mr. Williams, of Tunica, Miss, served as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wade left for a bridal trip to New Orleans, after which they will be at home to their friends in Senatobia, where Mr. Wade is pastor of the Presbyterian church.

The marriage of Miss Alma Maxine Morelock to Mr. Ralph Torcigliani was quietly solemnized on Sunday evening in the home of the bride's parents on Union avenue. The Rev. James M. McLeskey officiating in the presence of a few friends and relatives.

CLUBDOM

MANY DELEGATES WILL ATTEND MEETING OF DISTRICT FEDERATION.

Delegates from the Federated Women's clubs of four counties—Shelby, Hardeman, Fayette and Tipton—will attend the annual meeting of the Tenth District Federation Monday at the Nineteenth Century club. The district chairman, Mrs. William Howard Barker, is making the plans for the event, which promises to be most interesting. The morning session will be devoted to the hearing of the club reports and in the afternoon there will be addresses by members of the state board of directors and other prominent women, who are expected to be present. Between the two sessions the official representatives, the president and two delegates from each club, will be entertained at luncheon.

During the meeting a drive to increase the membership of the Tennessee Federation of Women's clubs, of which Mrs. A. S. Buchanan is president, will be instituted.

Among some of the prominent club women from a distance who will probably be present are Mrs. George W. Denney, of Knoxville, and Mrs. Alex Caldwell, of Nashville, former state president, and Mrs. Trimble, of Chattanooga, a member of the board, who is pleasantly remembered from her former visits here as Mrs. Louis Carter. Miss Annie Granbeck, who was engaged in war work with the American forces in Germany, will also be among those present and has been invited to address on the program.

SPEEDWAY CIVIL CLUB WILL STAGE "BUTTERFLY"

"Butterfly," an allegorical play to carry the lesson of prevention of tuberculosis, will be staged at the Lyric theatre by the Speedway Civil club on Dec. 18.

Rehearsals are in progress and the advance sale of tickets indicates considerable interest in the performance. The members of the club are being coached by a professional in their various parts.

K. of P. Entertains.

Jonathan Wood lodge, K. of P., entertained their ladies and friends with a fine program consisting of recitations and music in the Castle hall Monday night.

Light refreshments were served in the banquet hall. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the evening.

For War Sufferers

A check for $196.25 was sent to the local distribution committee for the benefit of the Jewish sufferers by Mrs. Robert Cohen, chairman of the Memphis branch. $70.15 of the amount was donations and $126.10 was dues for two months.

The out-of-town donors are Mr. and Mrs. M. Reisman, of Hughes, Ark., $19.35; Mrs. S. Sachs, of Fair Point, Miss., $5; Mrs. R. Cohen, of Dyersburg, Tenn., $2.

Entertain Employees

Measures for December afternoon teas will be the novel demonstration presented by the home economics department of the Nineteenth century club Friday morning at 10 o'clock, in the modern kitchen. Afternoon teas, their equipment and service, as well as Christmas dainties, will be included.

Woman's Congress.

Mrs. J. D. Allen, president, calls a meeting of the Woman's congress for 1:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Community center to discuss plans for the booth which will be conducted by the organization at the union bazaar.

Library Department Plans.

Mrs. James H. Watson, chairman of the library department of the Nineteenth century club, has planned a delightful afternoon for Thursday, Dec. 18, when a program illustrating folklore, fairylore and pageantry, all works of the imagination, will be presented.

The entertainments given by this department are always most artistic and this occasion will be no exception to that rule.

Ladies' Aid Society.

A most important meeting of the Ladies' aid society of Calvary church will be held in the parish house on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. This will be the final meeting for the church year and the past work will be reviewed.

Will Honor Pastor and Wife.

The ladies of the Missionary society of the Madison Heights M. E. church will entertain on Friday evening with a reception in honor of their pastor, the Rev. T. W. Lewis, and Mrs. Lewis. All members of the church have been invited to be present.
